

LUONG XUAN TRUONG
BIOGRAPHY

Luong Xuan Truong is a state official in Authority of Radio Frequency Management (ARFM) of the Ministry of Information and Communications of Viet Nam. He graduated from Vietnam National University Hanoi with a BA in Electronics and Telecommunications in 2009 and the Master degree in Telecommunications in 2011. From 2009 to 2015, he worked in The Regional Radio Frequency Center No. I - ARFM, he was responded to monitor and handle radio interference. Now he is working in radio frequency policy and planing division – ARFM, he is response to study and propose regulations on band plans, channel arrangements, technical and operation conditions for radio systems. He also researches into using and licensing policies for new technologies and systems. In addition, he has good knowledge of radio systems, radio frequency measuarement systems.