

KY Leng was born in Battambang, Cambodia, on May 06, 1979. He received a B.E. degree in electrical engineering from the Institute of Technology of Cambodia, in 2001, M.E. degree in electrical engineering from the Chulalongkorn University, Bangkok, Thailand in 2005, and Ph.D in electronic and telecommunication from Tokyo Institute of Technology, Tokyo, Japan in 2009. In 2001-2003, 2005-2006 and 2009-2014, he was a lecturer and researcher at the Institute of Technology of Cambodia. From 2014 till now, he is a Deputy Director General of General Department of Posts and Telecommunications at Ministry of Posts and Telecommunications, Cambodia. His research interests are communication system, electronic and computer programming.