

Nur Sulyna Abdullah Biography

Nur Sulyna Abdullah is the Chief Officer of Corporate Strategy for the Malaysian Communications and Multimedia Commission (MCMC). She joined MCMC in 2000 and has helped International Affairs since 2001. In her current position, she is responsible for MCMC's International, Legal and Prosecution, Policy and Strategy, as well as Corporate and Public Affairs portfolios.

She has held various positions for Malaysia on the international front including being the Founding Director of the ASEAN ICT Centre and Chair of the APEC Ad-hoc Steering Group on the Internet Economy. Currently, she Chairs the APT Preparatory Group for the ITU PP-18 and is also Honorary Advisor to the ASEAN ICT Centre.

Sulyna holds an LL.B (Hons.) from the University of London and is an Advocate and Solicitor of the Malaysian Bar.
