

Ms Lindl Rowe

Ms Lindl Rowe is the Director of International Engagement and Strategy at the Department of Communications and the Arts. She leads a team responsible for Australia's engagement with specialised international organisations including the ITU, APT and APECTEL. Prior to taking on this role she worked for Australia's national CERT, CERT Australia for eight years where she led the development and implementation of their cyber security exercise program and the expansion of their national and international partnerships teams. Lindl has over 15 years' experience working in the national security field for the Australian Government.