Sanjeev Kumar Sharma

Advisor, Telecom Regulatory Authority of India

Sanjeev Kumar Sharma is a senior officer with Government of India, having more than twenty-three years of experience in telecom sector. He is an Engineer, who has done his post-graduation from Indian Institute of Management Bangalore in association with Syracuse University, USA. He also has a degree in Law.

His experience ranges widely from telecom regulation, telecom operations, development of the Cellular Mobile networks from scratch, organization restructuring, licensing and telecom policy formulation. In his present assignment he is working as Advisor, Telecom Regulatory Authority of India (TRAI), Government of India and looks after Administration and International Relations.