

ITU Joint Workshop on ICT Statistics for CIS and Arab Regions

Tashkent, Republic of Uzbekistan, 12-14 February 2019

Practical implementation of PP Resolution 131 as for involvement of Member States to the work of ITU on statistics

Arseny Plossky,
Deputy head of laboratory,
Radio research and development institute (NIIR),
Russian Federation

Resolution 131. General info

---

- Resolution 131 Measuring information and communication technologies to build an integrating and inclusive information society (Rev. Dubai, 2018) – the main Resolution determined the work of ITU on the statistics in the field of telecommunications/ICT
- Firstly approved on ITU Plenipotentiary Conference 2006
- Operational part of Resolution always advancing in each version of revisions, mainly on the instructions for the Director of the Telecommunication Development Bureau

Key additions after PP-18

---

- A four-year period of validity for the structure and methodology of the ICT development index and ICT price baskets was established
- Operational part of Resolution always advancing in each version of revisions, mainly on the instructions for the Director of the Telecommunication Development Bureau
- New Section instructs the study groups of the ITU Telecommunication Development Sector

- From methodology to practice
- ITU – the main developer of IDI
- Requirements on systematical report for Council on the implementation of Resolution 131 were set
- Secretary-General should examine the necessary human and financial resources required in all the ITU Bureaux to conduct ITU's work in gathering, producing and publishing meaningful data, information, statistics and reports, and inform the Council of the results of this study

Participation of Member States in the ITU's work on the statistics in the field of telecommunications/ICT. Objectives and goals.

---

- Comparability between national and international statistics in the field of telecommunications/ICT
- Capacity building on statistics in the field of telecommunications/ICT
- Experience exchange
- Participation of countries in the process of building the international indicators and ranks (IDI, IPB)

Specialists in statistics – Expert Group on ICT Household Indicators (EGH) and Expert Group on Telecommunication/ICT Indicators (EGTI)

Liaison statements

Specialists in telecommunications/ICT – ITU Study Groups, including ITU-D Study Groups

Participation of Member States in the ITU's work on the statistics in the field of telecommunications/ICT. Requirements

---

- Transparency of the ITU's work on the statistics in the field of telecommunications/ICT
- Awareness about ITU events on the statistics in the field of telecommunications/ICT
- Conducting regional and interregional events on the capacity building, experience exchange and analysis of regional features, influenced on the international statistical indicators and ranks

Thank you for your kind attention!

105064, Russian Federation,
Moscow, Kazakova str. 16
tf.: (499) 261-36-94 | fax: (499) 261-00-90
info@niir.ru | www.niir.ru