

Yavor Todorov

Short Bio

Yavor Todorov is a Senior Expert at the State Agency for National Security /DANS/ of Bulgaria and leads a section of the Cybersecurity Department. Mr. Todorov has nearly 15 years of experience in the Bulgarian security services and has held various positions, including in the area of counterterrorism, counterintelligence and for the past one year – cybersecurity. In addition to that, Mr. Todorov is an ex-naval officer who has taken part in a number of multinational exercises aimed at strengthening security in the Black Sea region. Currently, he contributes to his team by providing cybersecurity recommendations relating to Bulgarian critical infrastructure sites. He works closely with Bulgaria's partnering law enforcement agencies and services. He is a MS in Telecommunications and in Port Management from the Bulgarian Naval Academy, as well as a MA in Strategic Studies from National Defense University, Washington D.C.