

ITU Cyber Drill - ALERT (Applied Learning for Emergency Response Teams) for Europe Region

26-30 November 2018 | St Raphael resort, Limassol, Cyprus

Organized within the Framework of the ITU Regional Initiative for Europe on ICT-Centric Innovation Ecosystems

Hosted by

Digital Security Authority of Cyprus

AGENDA

Sunday 25 November 2018

[19:00-21:00] Welcome Drink organized by National CSIRT-CY

Venue: St. Raphael Resort, Limassol

Monday 26 November 2018

FIRST TRAINING: Introduction to Reverse Engineering Malware

Introduction to Reverse Engineering Malware, will train Analysts, Incident Responders and Researchers to quickly dissect various malicious artifacts (executable, document, *script), triage the severity and extract indicators in a short amount of time. This workshop is designed for anyone who wants to start their journey into disassembling and debugging malicious binaries. Statically analyzing the artifacts helps in creating better detection and understanding the severity of the attack.

In this workshop we will learn how to extract and analyze malware found at different stages of an attack. We will walk through various tools used for debugging and disassembling such as OllyDbg, Ida, x64dbg etc. We will also look at reversing malware written in various languages such as C, .NET, Java, Autoit etc. The course will progress into identifying some advance tricks used by malware for anti-vm detection and anti-analysis.

Trainers: Mr Uttang Dawda and Mr Francesco Canestrelli

Course level: Intermediate

Pre-requisites: Understanding of Windows Internals and Operating System Familiarity with x86 and x86_64
