

DCAF

a centre for security,
development and
the rule of law

DCAF

a centre for security,
development and
the rule of law

Enhancing cybersecurity governance in the Western Balkans

28 November 2018

Franziska Klopfer
Southeast Europe Division

DCAF at a glance

DCAF
a centre for security,
development and
the rule of law

Geneva Center for the Democratic Control of Armed Forces (DCAF)

International foundation, established in 2000

62 member states (governments), 200 staff (over 30 nationalities)

Growing network of permanent or project offices (Ljubljana, Belgrade, Skopje)

Operational in more than 70 countries

DCAF is internationally recognized as a leading world centre of excellence for SSG and SSR, working with UN, OSCE, EU, national governments and intl. organisations

Good Governance in (Cyber)Security

DCAF
a centre for security,
development and
the rule of law

Good Governance

In Cybersecurity

accountable security institutions supply security as a public good via established transparent policies and practices

National cybersecurity coordination and regional cybersecurity cooperation

Technical capacities and international networks of Western Balkan CSIRT staff

Institutional reform and management in Western Balkan CSIRTs

DCAF's work in cybersecurity

DCAF
a centre for security,
development and
the rule of law

- 2009-2011 Policy research, Horizon 2015 series
- 2011-2018 Awareness raising: YFN, BSF, ad-hoc event in parliaments
- 2014-2018 Public private partnerships in CS (“Petnica group”), support to Serbian MUP CERT, national cybersecurity assessment in Montenegro, TTX in Serbia (2) and Montenegro
- 2018- Enhancing cybersecurity in the WB, UK FCO funded

Funded by the UK Foreign & Commonwealth Cyber Security Programme

Upcoming activities (up to March 2019):

- TRANSITS II support
- Capacity development plan-SRB CERT
- Training Serbian CERTs
- National RTs-Serbia, Montenegro, BiH, Macedonia(TBC)
- Capacity development plan CSIRT.ME

Thank you

DCAF
a centre for security,
development and
the rule of law

f.klopper@dcaf.ch

www.dcaf.ch