ITU/IDA ICT Regulators' Leadership Retreat, Singapore, 18 to 20 March 2015:

A unique event open only to Heads of ICT Regulatory Authorities

We are pleased to inform you that registration to attend the ITU/IDA ICT Regulators' Leadership Retreat is now open!

This exclusive Retreat focusing on "Getting ready for tomorrow: regulation in a data-driven connected world" will provide Heads of ICT Regulatory Authorities with the opportunity to engage with internationally renowned experts, exchange views and experiences, challenge established myths and ideas from the ICT sector and identify common approaches to respond efficiently to the challenges of regulation in a data-driven connected world. Furthermore, the Retreat will strengthen regulatory collaboration at the global level and provide a platform for sharing innovative and forward looking ideas, laying the foundation of an executive regulatory think-tank.

Topics include: competition in the digital age, the changing rules of the game brought by the advent of OTTs, big data for bigger decisions, smart cities and open data, the role of the regulator today and in preparing for tomorrow and the recent Singapore's experience.

To ensure interactivity and dynamic exchanges, the number of seats will be limited. Therefore, we encourage you to register early.

We look forward to your participation and remain at your disposal should you need any further information.
