
ITU Public Webinar on the Economic implications of COVID-19 on national telecommunications/ICT infrastructure

SPEAKER BIO

Mr David Geary, General Counsel Caribbean for the Digicel Group

David Geary is General Counsel Caribbean for the Digicel Group and is responsible for legal and regulatory affairs for Digicel in the Caribbean. He joined Digicel in the South Pacific in 2010 and moved to the Caribbean in 2013. David is admitted as a solicitor in Ireland and in England & Wales and previously practiced anti-trust and regulatory law with major law firms in Sydney, Brussels and Dublin. He is a graduate of the European University Institute and the University of Limerick and is a former chair of EU & International Affairs Committee of the Law Society of Ireland. He is the author of various publications and is a regular contributor to discussions on the future of the industry in the Caribbean region.