
Unsolicited Commercial Communications/ Nuisance calls: Are consumers more vulnerable in the era of COVID-19?

BIO

Mr Leonardo Euler de Morais, President, NATIONAL TELECOMMUNICATION AGENCY (ANATEL), BRAZIL

Leonardo Euler de Morais started his career in Anatel in 2006. Since then he has worked as an advisor for the Board of Directors, as Head of the Economic Monitoring Management Office and as Head of the Technical Advisory Office. In 2016 he started his mandate as Commissioner. He is also the President of Spectrum and Orbit Committee (Comitê de Espectro e Órbita – CEO), responsible for supporting the Board of Directors in the decision-making process regarding the allocation plan, allocation and distribution of radio frequency bands in Brazil. At the end of 2018 he was appointed Anatel's Chairman with a mandate until November 2021. Mr Euler is the first public servant from the Agency to become the President.

After graduating from University of Brasília (UnB), Mr Euler worked for Eletronorte as an analyst.

Mr Euler is graduated in Economic Sciences and holds a master's degree in Economics, both from the University of Brasília (UnB), where he has also taught courses in Economics.