
Web Dialogue: ITU-D Study Groups Public Webinar on ICTs for climate action and rebuilding greener economies after COVID-19

MODERATOR BIO

BIOGRAPHY

Ms Aprajita Sharma is a career civil servant, belonging to IP&TAF Service, 1995 batch in Dept of Telecom, ministry of communications. with almost 24 years of work experience.

She is currently posted as Deputy Director General Budget, Public Enterprise Finance and Training Finance in department of telecom (Dot), Ministry of communication, India.

A post graduate and gold medalist in science with special interest in environment and sustainability, she has vast experience of working in various streams of government, like Finance, Budget, Human Resources, Administration, staff and establishment, Training and Telecom Revenue.

She also has vast experience of working in Department of Posts, Government of India, as head of Finance of four states.

She has a post graduate diploma in financial management from National institute of financial management, Faridabad and currently is pursuing a Post graduate diploma in Environment and sustainability.

She has also worked as Election observer during Indian assembly and parliamentary Elections.

She is actively working and holding leadership position in International Telecommunication Union (ITU) Development sector, Study Group 2 (SG2), Geneva, as co-Rapporteur for ICTs and Environment, which deals with E-waste management and role of frontier technologies in climate change mitigation.