

Mr. Adrian SINCLAIR

Born in 1964 in Buenos Aires, Argentina.

30 years' experience in radio frequency systems working in technical support and service, including HF, VHF, UHF, trunking and cellular systems.

Currently is working in Satellogic as Operation Manager, responsible for ground stations setup, regulatory and frequency coordination, and daily operations of Aleph constellation.

Long experience in space communications with ham radio space experiments, coordinating technical aspects in AMSAT Argentina, designing and building different space experiments in balloons and satellites for Ham radio, NASA ARISS education program for ISS to school communication program as telebridge station, and bouncing signals to Moon communications experiences.