

MARTIN GUILLERMO
GARCIA VASQUEZ

Martin Garcia is the Coordinator of Regulation and Management of Orbit and Frequency Recourses at Bolivian Space Agency. He has a telecommunications Engineering degree from Universidad Mayor de San Andres in Bolivia.

During his career, he has worked in the Telecommunications Regulator of Bolivia as Chief of Public Services and licensing. After that in 2012 he was chosen in a National contest to join the Tupac Katari Satellite Program, being trained during a year in the Chinese Academy of Space Technology CAST in People's Republic of China for different areas such as Satellite Technology, Satellite design, Frequency and Orbit coordination and On the Job training during the AIT phase of the TKSAT-1. After that he joined the Bolivian Space Agency where he is currently working.