

Mr. Nick G. SPINA

Manager Launch and Regulatory Affairs at Kepler Communications Inc.

Nick has a track record of defining new programs to help automate the collection, analysis and reporting of large data-sets. This is especially true for regulatory frameworks in the Aerospace/Space industry by virtue of simulation.

He is a mechanical engineer, project innovator and business enthusiast who engages his understanding and experience of open source platforms and outsourced development to increase project productivity and turnaround times.