

Anthony Baker is currently the Advisor on spectrum strategy at O3b Networks. Anthony has over 20 years' experience in the satellite business with roles in both commercial and government organisations. Prior to joining O3b, Anthony Baker held the position of Chief Strategy Officer at Es'hailSat – The Qatar Satellite Company and Vice President at SES where he led a range of activities including space development, satellite procurement, spectrum management, and business development. He has also worked for AsiaSat in Hong Kong and NATO in Europe.

In the New Year, Anthony became a director in the Earth Observation company Global Satellite Vu.