

Ms. Ting Ling Lee is based in Singapore and works for Mr. Kevin Seow, who is the Vice President, Spectrum Management & Development Asia-Pacific. She is responsible for matters which include the coordination & notification of satellite networks, the development of new spectrum opportunities within this region and satellite regulatory issues.

She attends and participates in ITU-R WP 4A, WP5D meetings as well as regional meetings such as the APG and AWG, to defend the interests of SES as well as the satellite industry as a whole.