

Leveraging on International and Regional Cooperation for Sustainable E-Waste Management in the African Region

Presentation Abstract

Developing nations and regions have all embarked on initiatives and processes as part of the global push towards effective e-waste management. However the question lies with how they have aligned their regional e-waste management value chain? The presentation discusses the effective support structures to get them to final step of the process, what is needed, ideal Vs reality.