Title of presentation	Accessibility issues and User interfaces, projects of ISO JTC1 SC35.
Khalid Choukri Chairman, Chairman ISO/IEC JTC1/SC35 'User Interfaces', ELRA Secretary General & ELDA CEO, Luxembourg
	Khalid Choukri obtained an Electrical Engineering degree (1983) from École Nationale de l'aviation civile (ENAC, Toulouse, France), and a Master Degree (1984) and Doctoral degree (1987) in Computer sciences and Signal processing at the École Nationale Supérieure des Télécommunications (Télécom ParisTech) in Paris, France, in Partnership with Alcatel-Lucent. He has been researcher and consultant for speech technology at several French institutions and companies, among them Cap Gemini and Thomson. Since 1995, he has been the Secretary General of the European Language Resources Association (ELRA) and the Founder and CEO of the distribution agency (ELDA). Khalid CHOUKRI is member of the Programme Committee of the Language Resources and Evaluation Conference (LREC). For the past 30 years, he has been working on various aspects of spoken and written language technologies, with focuses on multilingual and multicultural aspects in academic and industrial environments. He is the chair of the ISO SC35 in charge of human-machine interfaces and accessibility and was/is involved in other standardization activities of ISO (e.g. TC37), ETSI, etc.
Abstract of presentation	Presentation of the ISO/IEC JTC1/SC 35 activities in some of the major areas related to User Interfaces & ICT.