

Title of presentation	Certification and reporting for Accessibility with a sidestep to public procurement
	Hoeckner Klaus Austrian Disability Forum/IAAP Klaus Höckner, born 1966, is member of the board of the Hilfsgemeinschaft based in Vienna. With more than 4650 members, the Hilfsgemeinschaft is the leading privately funded organisation helping visually impaired persons in Austria. He is member of the board of the Austrian Disability Forum and vice president of the Austrian Computer Society, as well as sitting in IAAPs Global Leadership Council. Klaus has an ICT background. He studied at the University of Economics in Vienna and has a degree as well as a PG in WebAccessibility and Fundraising. Klaus is working for more than 15 years in the field of Accessibility, especially regarding to ICT and standardisation in the context of an European (i.e. in the European Disability Forum EDF) and inter/national level.
Abstract of presentation	The presentation gives a short overview, what is going on in the field of certification in Austria - 2 examples will be given, one in the field of personal certification - national initiative C(ertified) W(eb) A(ccessibility) E(xpert) and the other the DACH Chapter of IAAP. Another example is the certification of websites according to WCAG 2.(0).1 - W(eb) A(ccessibility) C(ertificate) A(Austria), and how this could be a blueprint for other regions, countries.