ITU Workshop on Policies in relation to impact of Artificial Intelligence on ICT services

Geneva, 10 April 2018

Yunato Wang

China Academy of Information and Communication Technology, China

Mr. WANG Yuntao, Engineer at China Academy of Information and Communication Technology, graduated from University of Southern California, now his work focuses on artificial intelligence algorithm, opensource, datasets and open platforms. He has been actively engaged in the work of AI related standardization and evaluation. His formal research focuses on network planning and governmental level international cooperation. Yuntao Wang has been responsible for more than 15 projects on broadband development analysis and planning. He also has rich working experiences in ITU-D and ITU-T related work.orth-American market at Toronto Stock Exchange.