The challenges of road operators in relation to Cooperative, Connected & Automated Driving (CCAD)

Presentation Abstract

The presentation will cover the current status of ITS in the road operators segment and give an outlook on challenges for providing connectivity for the support of CCAD use cases especially with regards to our tolling system currently in operation.