[STATE OF ....]

or[1] [GOVERNMENT OF ....]

Instrument of Accession

to the Instruments amending the Constitution of the International Telecommunication Union (Geneva, 1992) and the Convention of the International Telecommunication Union (Geneva, 1992), as amended by the Plenipotentiary Conferences (Kyoto, 1994; Minneapolis, 1998; Marrakesh, 2002; Antalya, 2006)

adopted by the Plenipotentiary Conference (Guadalajara, 2010)

Whereas

on 22 October 2010, the Member States of the International Telecommunication Union participating in the Plenipotentiary Conference (Guadalajara, 2010) signed the Instruments amending the ITU Constitution and Convention (Geneva, 1992), as amended by the Plenipotentiary Conferences (Kyoto, 1994; Minneapolis, 1998; Marrakesh, 2002; Antalya, 2006), and whereas

_____[2] is a Member State of the International Telecommunication Union, a Party to the above-mentioned Constitution and Convention, but is not a signatory to the Instruments amending the said Constitution and Convention adopted by the Plenipotentiary Conference (Guadalajara, 2010);

_____[2] is thus qualified to accede to the said Instruments of Amendment, in accordance with Article 55 of the Constitution and Article 42 of the Convention,

We/I[1,3] _____

declare, by virtue of this single Instrument, that _____[2] accedes to the above-mentioned Instruments of Amendment, adopted by the Plenipotentiary Conference (Guadalajara, 2010), and undertakes to abide faithfully by all of the provisions contained therein.

This Instrument of Accession shall become effective on the date of its deposit with the Secretary-General of the International Telecommunication Union.
