

BAE, Kyoung Yul

President, KISDI (Korea Information Society Development Institute)

Mr. BAE Kyoung Yul took office as President of KISDI in August 2023.

Mr BAE significantly contributed to the transformation of the informatization society of the Republic of Korea since the early 2000s.

He previously served as Director of Information Planning at Seoul Metropolitan Government and Professor of Sangmyung University (Department of Computer Science) and Sogang University, Graduate School of Management of Technology/ ICT Convergence Research Institute.

He holds a Master's degree/Ph.D. in Information Science from the University of Alabama, USA and, a bachelor's degree in Information Science from Old Dominion University, USA.