

Roman Gojayev

Roman Gojayev is a gender activist, international facilitator and trainer; co-founder & development director of Gender Hub Azerbaijan, a youth-centred feminist organization working towards strengthening a multistakeholder approach to achieve extensive gender equality and women's rights in the country. Roman is one of the appointed 35 leaders of 2023 Obama Leaders programme under the Obama Foundation; He is proud Board Member of the Generation Connect Visionaries at the International Telecommunication Union of the UN, and member of the Human Rights Education Youth Network.

He has 6 years of experience working with national and European NGOs in coordinating and providing capacity building training in the youth work sector. He has worked with different UN specialized agencies such as UNDP, UNFPA, OHCHR including with the several Embassies. The projects Roman has been organizing reached out and affected at least eight thousands stories. He has granted projects on youth digital inclusion and digital gender divided topics.

Previously, he was a member of the Expert Group on Youth Rights at the European Youth Forum. In addition, Roman has worked for the National Youth Council of Azerbaijan (NAYORA) as the International Relations and Program Secretary.