

INFORMAL MEETING PRESENTERS

SEPTEMBER 16, 2002

- 1. Nick Moraitis, partnership coordinator for TAKING IT GLOBAL, a youth perspective on the themes of the Summit.
- 2. Philippe Queau, Director, UNESCO Information Society Division, with a UNESCO perspective on the themes of the Summit.
- 3. Rosa Delgado, Internet Society, and Chair of the Civil Society World Forum, with a perspective from the Civil Society Forum on the themes of the Summit.
- 4. Robert Rogers, Executive Director, Global Information Infrastructure Commission, with a perspective on the themes of the Summit drawing from preliminary results of a global survey.
- 5. Alfonso Ruiz De Assin, Presidente Capitulo Europeo de Asociacion Internacional de Radiodifusion, with a media perspective on the themes of the Summit.
- 6. John Dryden, Deputy Director, Science and Technology Branch, Directorate for Science, Technology and Industry, OECD, with an economic development perspective on the themes of the Summit.
- 7. Pradip Thomas, World Association for Christian Communication, on behalf of the Interim Civil Society Plenary Coordinating Group at PrepCom-1, with a Civil Society perspective on the themes of the Summit.
- 8. Julianne Lee, on behalf of Jose Maria Figueres, Chair, UNICT Task Force with an ICT development perspective on the themes of the Summit.

- 9. Ayesha Hassan, Senior Policy Director, ICC, on behalf of the Coordinating Committee of Business Interlocutors, with a business sector perspective on the themes of the Summit.
- 10. Artur Serra, Global Communities Network, School of Computer Science, Universidad de Cataluna, presentation on the themes of the Summit from the perspective of cyber-governance and technology.
- 11. Pall Thorhallsson, Media Division, Council of Europe, with a Council perspective on the themes of the Summit.
- 12. Inngun Yssen, Senior Gender Advisor, ITU-BDT, on behalf of the Inter Agency Network on Women and Gender Equality with a gender perspective on the themes of the Summit.