Chapter Three: Internet Governance

Part 1: Introduction

- Geneva Principles

- WGIG Mandate

- Working definition

Part 2: Stakeholders

- Roles and responsibilities of stakeholders

- Coordination

Part 3: Public policy issues relevant to Internet Governance

3a) Infrastructure and management of critical Internet resources

3b) Possible governance/oversight function

3c) Use of the Internet

- Internet stability, security and cybercrime
- Spam
- Freedom of expression
- Data protection and privacy rights
- Consumer rights
- Intellectual Property Rights

Part 4: Measures to promote development

- Interconnection costs

- Capacity-building and meaningful participation in global policy development

- Multilingualism

- Enabling environment

Part 5: Possible Future Mechanism

- Framework for interface between existing and future arrangement

- Recommended mandate

- Structure – light/heavy, loose/tight?