

Source:
Doc. WSIS-II/PC-2/DT/5-E

Document WSIS-II/PC-3/DT/5-E
8 August 2005
Original: English

Chair of the WSIS PrepCom-2 Sub-Committee

Compilation of comments on Chapter four, operational part

Note: New text in bold. Deleted text in ~~strike through~~. [Comments in italics.]

This compilation is based on comments received during PrepCom-2 (17-25 February 2005). For comments received after 25 February, see document DT/6(Rev. 2).

Existing Text	Sources of proposed text	Proposed Text
Chapter four - The way ahead
26. To build an Information Society will require unremitting effort. We thus commit ourselves to keep fully engaged, nationally, regionally and internationally, to ensure sustainable follow-up to the implementation of agreements and commitments reached during WSIS process and its Geneva and Tunis summits. Taking into account the multifaceted nature of building the Information Society, effective cooperation among all stakeholders is needed, based on respect for their mandates and leveraging on their expertise.	United States, Turkey	26. ..., to ensure sustainable follow-up to the implementation of agreementsdecisions and commitments reached during WSIS process and its Geneva and Tunis summits....
27. [We agree that the follow-up to Internet governance should be separated from the other issues and organized as outlined in Chapter Three.]	Turkey, Saudi Arabia Russian Federation	[Disagree with the separation of the follow-up to Internet Governance from the other issues; propose the deletion or the rewriting of this paragraph] [Delete the paragraph]
28. We request the Secretary-General of the Summit to report to the General Assembly of the United Nations on its outcome.	No changes

Existing Text	Sources of proposed text	Proposed Text
29. We request the Secretary-General of the United Nations to provide—with the collaboration of all stakeholders, and fully utilizing the existing coordination mechanisms within or related to the United Nations—sustained follow-up within the United Nations system to the agreements and commitments reached at WSIS and to ensure effective secretariat support. The Secretary-General of the United Nations is further requested to submit a periodic report to the General Assembly of the United Nations on those follow-up efforts.	United States Brazil Australia, EU, Egypt, Saudi Arabia, Russian Federation Turkey	29. ..... the existing coordination mechanisms within [or related to] the United Nations—sustained follow-up within the United Nations system to the agreements decisions agreements and commitments reached at WSIS [and to ensure effective secretariat support.] 29. ...-with the collaboration of governments and all stakeholders, ... [ Underlining the straight link to paragraphs 10 and 11 of Chapter One of the Operational Part, they reserve the right to come back on paragraph 29 when paragraphs 10 and 11 will be discussed] [Delete paragraph 29 in order not to duplicate paragraphs 10 and 11 of Chapter One].